OUR AMERICAN HERITAGE

"We the people" of Emmerich Manual Training High School are ever mindful of our greatest heritage—the American way of life. We enjoy our kind of living with our many freedoms that make our inalienable rights of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" very real to us. Training of mind, hand, and heart, Manual's educational goal, fits us for this kind of living.

Celebrities like Dr. H. L. Shibley, superintendent of Indianapolis schools, Mayor Alex Clark, and Indiana Supreme Court Justice James A. Emmert visited the Valley Forge Exhibit at Manual. Their hostess is Joy Schreiber.

We had "the American way of life," which we live with so complacently every day, put before us in "black and white" this year when the exhibit from Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, was displayed at Manual. All 1600 of us visited it with our English classes and gained a better understanding of our country's background of struggle to gain freedoms for every American.

OUR MANUAL HERITAGE

We the people of Manual have a fine "family" heritage. Founded in 1895, the first high school in the United States to offer free industrial training, our school has enlarged her curriculum to include all fields of study. Whether preparing for college, the business world, or homemaking, we can get it at Manual.

Each school day starts with the hoisting of "Old Glory" in front of Manual by the ROTC Color Guard. Cadets Ronnie Clark and Bob Johnson present arms while Cadets Charles Wills and Bill Disbro raise the flag.

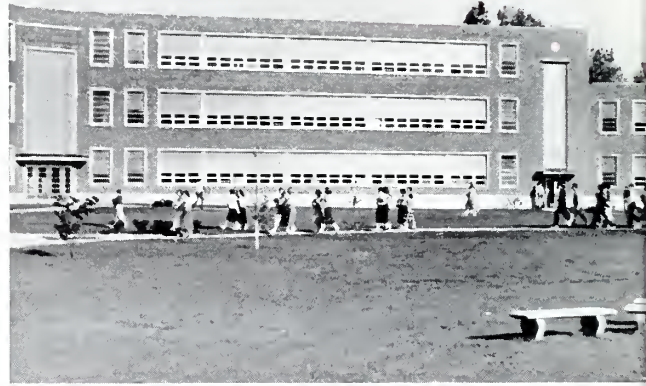

Teaching government by the people for the people is put into practice through the Student Affairs Board. Attending Executive Board Meeting are Jack Patterson, George Smallwood, Nancy Foster, Miriam Scharfe, Sherry Dyer, and Sponsor John Patten.

Manual's Alumni Association backs our school as staunchly as a college grad club. Right, Booster Reporter Miriam Scharfe interviews Mrs. Mary Spiegel, alumni registrar, and Miss Garnett Foreman, a teacher-grad, in the Alumni's own room, newly furnished by their association.

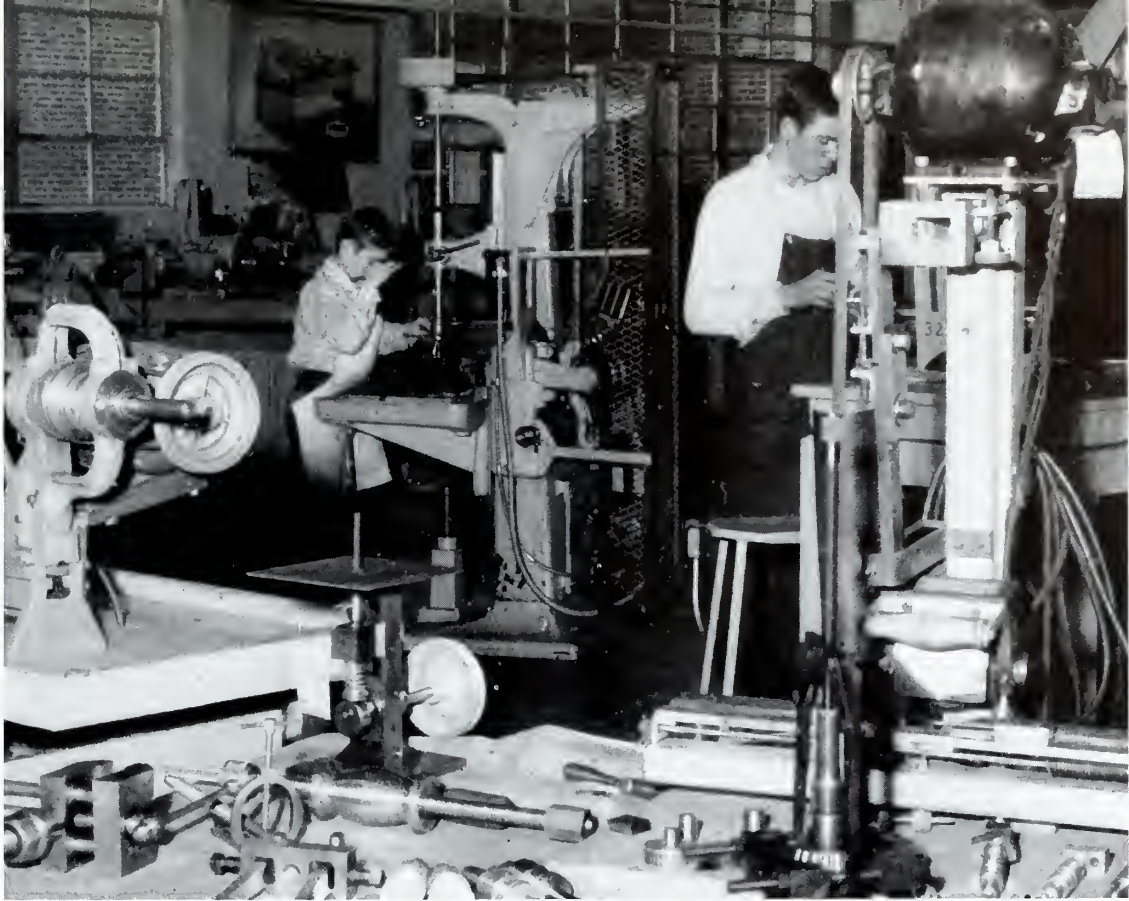

Manual students cross the court on nice days for a breath of fresh air between classes.

Manual Prepares Us for 'Tomorrow'

A beautiful modern building, set in a picturesque campus and furnished with the finest equipment, makes our school days enjoyable and rewarding. We like school at Manual.

Home economics classes at Manual work in colorful labs with the latest appliances. Mrs. Jean Bacus supervises a sewing class using late model electric machines.

Industrial arts classes meet in the most modern of shops like the Metal Shop above, and boys are trained for actual jobs in industry.

Making use of Manual's picturesque campus is one of Mr. Robert Crawford's art classes. On fine days with stools and drawing boards they move outside.

Judy Foster was district winner of the title "Good Citizen" from the Caroline Scott Harrison DAR Chapter.

We Learn the Meaning of 'Citizen'

Modern education prepares us to live the American Way of Life. We learn that with our freedoms come the responsibilities of citizenship. We are citizens of the greatest country in the world—a nation including all nationalities, races, and creeds, of which our Manual family includes many.

Manual's seven foreign born students, Brigitte Kirstein, Karin Blom, Tony Uuk, Algimantas Tekorius, Urve Kask, Livia Saulgoziz, and Anne Kask, discuss school life in their adopted country.

Senior Urve Kask, a native of Estonia, became a new citizen in March. Principal C. Edgar Stahl and Urve discuss the reproductions of historic American documents in The Freedom Shrine, presented to Manual by the Southside Exchange Club.

Brice Tressler was president of Hi-Y's Model UN which assembled at the State House in April. Jim Miller visited UN for Manual on the public schools' annual trek to United Nations, New York.

One Nation . . . Indivisible Takes On New Meaning

We learn that being a strong nation the United States must assume world leadership. At Manual we study the meaning of world citizenship for our country in the "one world" of today. We learn about the conduct of the United Nations, and we study national and international politics, thus gaining an understanding of why America must remain indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Manual's "experts" for The Indianapolis Star's Quiz 'Em On the Air were Cammie Wilburn, Judy Pitt, Stan Schuchman, Mike Steadham, and Max Smith.

Being a good driver is a responsibility of every driving citizen. More than 200 Manualites enrolled in Driver Education this year. Shirley Pedigo "recites" by driving classmates through Garfield Park.

Many Grads return annually for Homecoming. King Danny Brown and Queen Nadine Brehob, escorted by Papooses Dave McLinn and Rita Weimer, were crowned by George Gritton and Barbara Brown, Royalty of '54.

We Observe America's Free

Mr. J. H. Maddox, assistant foreman for the Shipping Department of the American Can Company, lectures on the operation of container industries. Mrs. Edna Gullett, Manual Problems teacher, is at the desk.

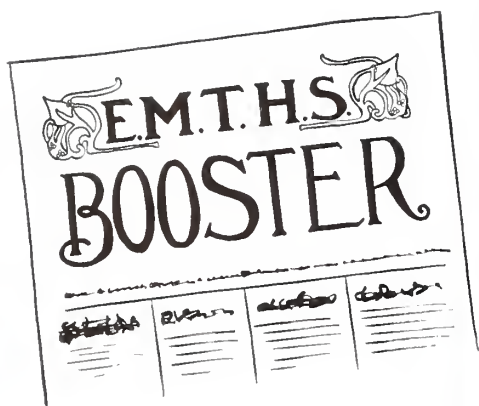

Richard Hadley, a student guide on Students-in-Industry Day, explains the operation of a Canco machine to visitors. School officials, teachers and pupils of Manual, parents, and friends were all invited.

Enterprise in Operation...

In November Mrs. Edna Gullett's American Problems classes had a month-long study of America's free enterprise system. This Students-in-Industry project used the American Can Company to bridge the gap between classroom studies and the realities of the actual business world. After having daily visiting "teachers" from Canco, the study ended with Students-in-Industry Day. Selected students served as counterparts of various Canco employees and assisted in the actual management and operation of the plant.

Student Plant Manager Jack Patterson dictates to his secretary, Donna Von Pein. Plant Manager N. D. Deitrich looks on approvingly.

Home Room "newsboys" stop by the Publications Office on Fridays to pick up Boosters. Every Manualite is automatically a subscriber.

Linda Collins and Phyllis Brehob mount the News Bureau's stories, clipped from local papers, in the Bulletin Board by the Publications Office.

Ivian Editor Ruth Agan crowns Bob Lindemann and Alice Bogie as King Ivan and Queen Ann at the yearbook's annual picture dance.

Staffers at the I. U. Journalism Institute are Elaine Eskitch, Pete Karns, Linda Kellar, Judy Foster, Linda Schulz, Karin Blom, Les Brandt, Jack Patterson, Jim Miller, and on the floor, Joyce Skaggs, Mary Iannuzzi.

Publications Date Back to 1895

Judy Delameter, senior editor, and Teddy Winckelbach, underclass editor, mount Manualites for the Ivian album section.

Manualites seem always to have felt the need of printed expression. From a small beginning in 1895 that started our "presses rolling," publications at Manual have developed to a prize-winning weekly newspaper and an annual, bound volume of each year's people and experiences. Staff members "live" in the Publications Office, but they love it.

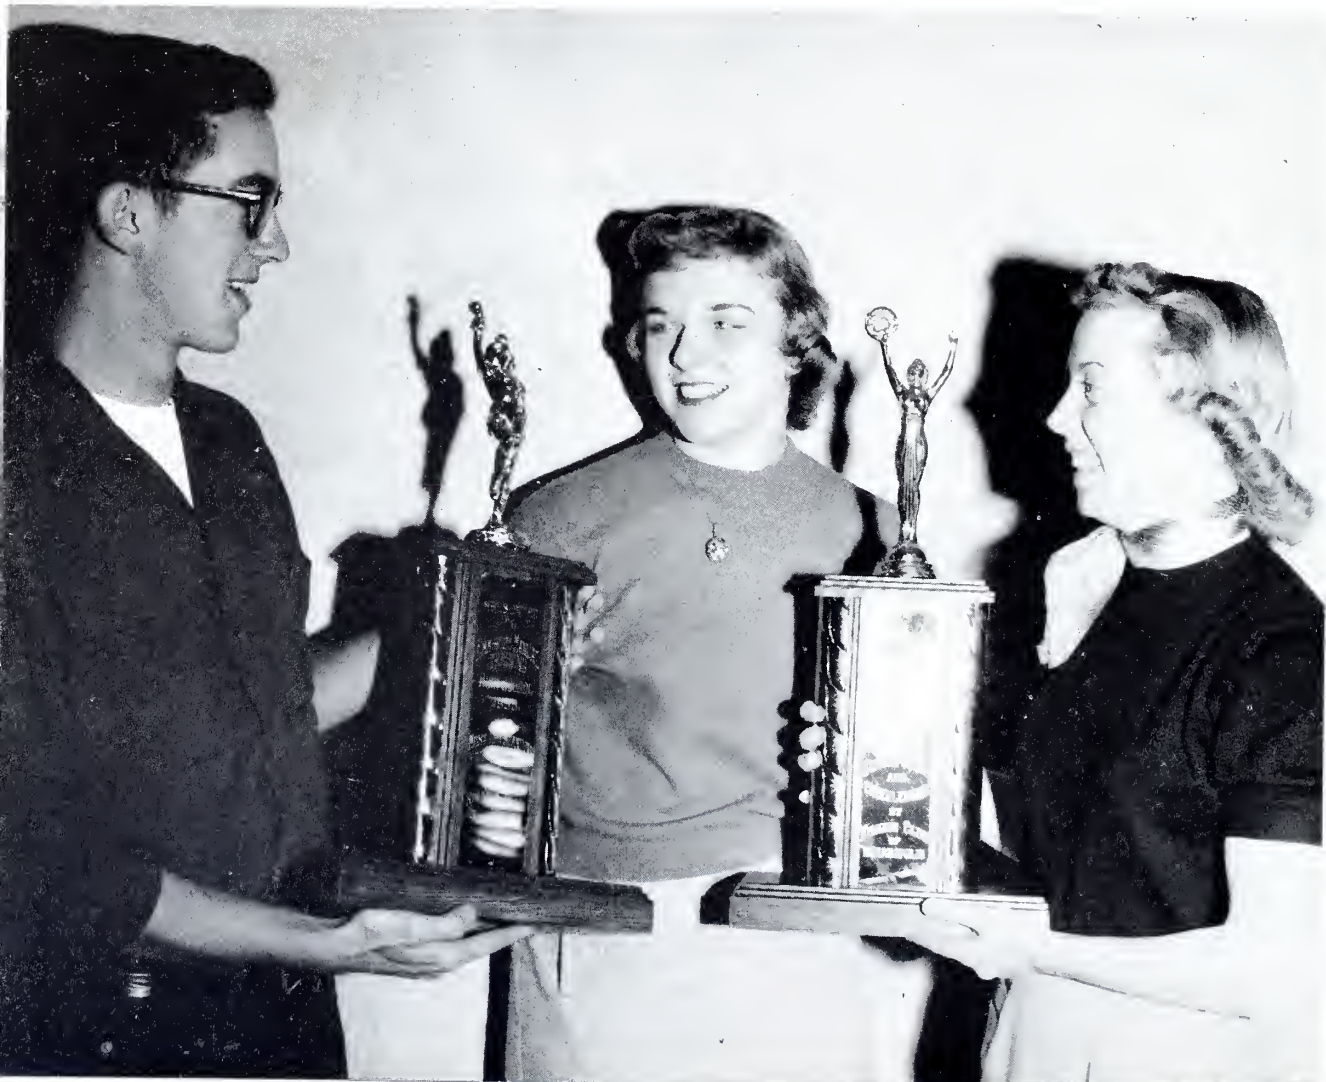

Art students Janet Jones, Marvin Newland, and Sheron Mosey complete senior arm bands and insignia for their classmates.

'Moments to Remember' Highlight

Ed Throm, band captain, Lois Strong, drum major, and Jeanne Steele, captain of the varsity cheerleaders, proudly display the Kiwanis trophies for "best city football band" and "school spirit."

Judy Foster and Miriam Scharfe pin guest cards on Career Day speakers, Miss Martha Lou Akers, Assistant Director of Nursing at I. U. Medical Center, and Miss Helen Hollingsworth of L. S. Ayres and Company.

Our Year at Manual...

Senior Days, when the Class of '56 was honored; the assembly where the Kiwanis football "school spirit" awards were presented; Career Day, when every student attended his choice of 60 guidance conferences; and Senior Business-Industry-Education Day to which juniors were also invited—all of these were red-letter days on Manual's calendar.

Mr. J. Ray Johnson and Ricki Rowles brief Mr. Chris Theofanis, Indianapolis Schools Public Relations, and Miss Jeannette Baker, American States Insurance Company, for Senior B. I. E. Day.

Our Manual Heritage:
THE ACTIVITIES

Organized activities that are co-curricular have always been an important part of Manual. New groups have been added as students have asked for them; others have been dropped as a need for them no longer existed. Activities belong to us students and fill a need for self-expression. Newest addition is a chapter of National Honor Society, installed this Spring.

These Serve

School organizations must have a purpose to be worth while. Some, like department clubs, provide an opportunity for additional learning; but many of Manual's clubs thrive on service to the school. Roines members George Smallwood, Jack Patterson, and Jim Miller arrange lights on their Christmas tree on the marquee over the Auditorium entrance.

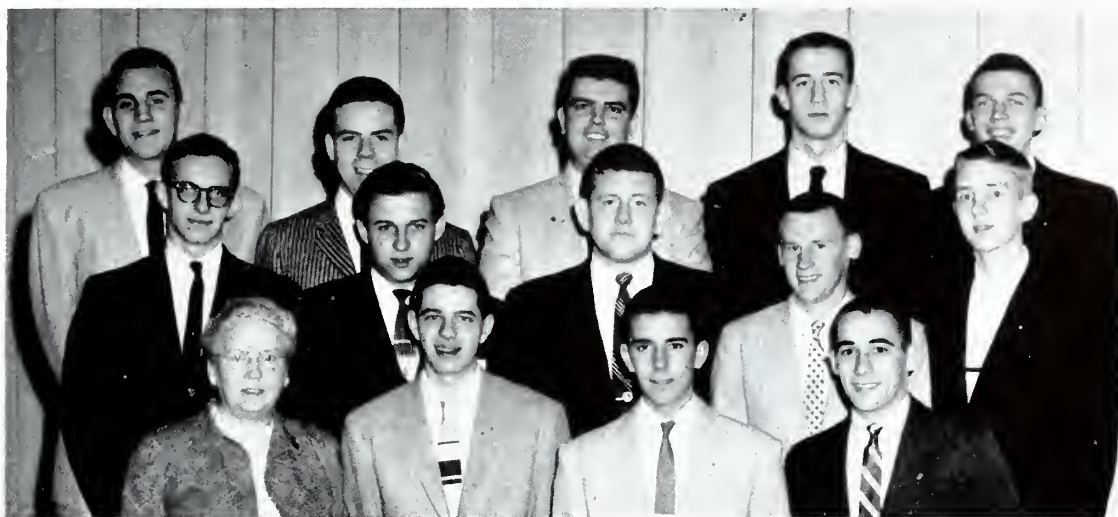

Senior Honoraries—Masoma

Senior honorary clubs, Masoma for girls and Roines for boys, have served Manual since 1914. Jointly they serve at athletic banquets, and each organization takes on the responsibility of helping freshmen adjust to high school.

Roines members hand out programs at athletic contests and man the "lost and found" department. Their annual skating party, object—making money, is a looked-forward-to social event.

Student Affairs

Manual's National Thespian Troupe No. 1492 was a year old in March. "The White Phantom," their big production of the year, was given in October. Thespians is an honorary which a student works up to through our dramatic club, Mask and Wig, and other theatrical activities.

Representing National Thespians in the Ivian's skit at the yearbook promotional and program are Ricki Rowles, Howard Sibley, and Barbara Collins.

Manual's stage crew is organized like that of a professional stage. Stephen Spacke, Allen Medlock, and Herman Teepe are shown moving the back drop to enlarge the stage.

Many opportunities for self-expression arise throughout the year. In the Fall there is the TeePee Talent Show, for which anyone may try out. One of the unusual chances for varied dramatic abilities this year was a Pep Session skit. Depicting the history of "cheering" from the cave man, through the age of chivalry, the American Indian, the flapper period, to the modern "hep cats," and ending with Manual's own cheerleaders, this skit was presented at the Assembly when our Manual cheering ability was commended by the Kiwanis Club.

Pep Session Skit Cast included: Standing, Naomi Bagby, Dave Oliver, Joe Ernst, Brice Tressler, Sandie Thompson, George Mudd, John Carroll, Ronnie Kottkamp, Max Smith. On the floor, Ronnie Whiteside, Martha Clay Turner, Danny Brown, Don Whiteside.

Hi-Y members are preparing for the model UN assembly. SEATED: Kenny Bryant, Brice Tressler, Steve Tressler, Dick Hurst. STANDING: Warren Thorn, Dan Morris, Bill Bruhn, Lowell Scott.

Hi-Y

Participating in the Model United Nations which assembles in the House of Representatives at the State House in April is Hi-Y's big activity. Brice Tressler was elected president of the UN and Dan Morris, vice-president.

Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y girls helped Manualites dress in style for the Sectional by selling red derbies to "top" our cheering section. Tri-Hi-Y members were also delegates to the Model UN from Latin American countries.

Tri-Hi-Y girls kept "shop" in the Auditorium foyer for a week before the Sectional tournament. More than 500 Manual rooters bought red derbies, identifying toppers for Redskins.

John Swartz, Bill Nichols, Ray Grunden, Carol Wingo, and Carolyn Turner go "on the air."

Radio Clubs

Responsible for the "Morning Show" that comes to us each day before school over WMHS, our own radio station, is the Radio Club. Members take turns at being disk jockey, announcer, or technical director. Commercials concerning Manual's activities are often used.

Good "contacts" are the business of the Ham Radio Club. Allen Swain, Mr. Don Hully, Lowell Scott, David Drummond, Dan Morris, and Ken Cross discuss plans for reaching "hams" in all 48 states.

The Booster

Everyone at Manual reads The Booster, our weekly newspaper. Its editorial policy is the publicizing and promoting of all school activities and projects, in addition to offering a bit of humor and entertainment on the side.

News Bureau

Correspondents to city papers help keep Manual in the news. Marjorie Tomasik, Indianapolis News, Anita Roeder, Indianapolis Star, and Martha June Turner, Indianapolis Times, hold a press conference.

The Ivian

Long hours were spent working to put Manual's story of this year together under one cover. Arranging pictures and writing copy to do justice to all of Manual's activities and achievements took much planning.

Quill & Scroll and Student Aids

Known as Wigwam Workers are the Manualites who assist with routine duties in offices and departments, serve as corridor monitors, and act as "right hand men" for Deans and staff members. They are "paid" with honor points toward League of Honor standing.

Pat Miller and Cathy Burger check girl absentees for Dean Vivian Siener.

Bill McCurry and Bill Beachman operate the slide projector for a class in the Visual Aid Room for Miss Theo Parr, director.

Gaily costumed cast members made a delightful picture for this finale. The Art Department painted the skyline backdrops.

Delores Fox, Teddy Winckelbach, and Jack Thompson carried three of the leading roles.

Manual Music

"Hollywood Extra" was the Music Department's annual operetta. We followed an ambitious teenager, who won a singing contest, to the movie center for a screen test. "On location" in Algeria provided a colorful setting.

Manual's music groups said "Merry Christmas" at the traditional auditorium program on the day before vacation. The performance this year included a "living Christmas tree" formed on the stage by members of the Glee Club.

Band and Orchestra

Two of Manual's largest and best-known organizations, the Band and the Orchestra, participate in numerous school and civic programs. Their members wear medals won in many district and state contests. Their director is Mr. William Kleyla. Our "long gray line" is tops as a marching unit.

Glee—ettes

Glee Club girls who love to sing make up a volunteer group known as the Glee-ettes. Directed by Miss Freda Hart, they sang for the P-TA's eighth birthday party in February. Above, they "dig in" to the four-tiered cake which highlighted the occasion. Called upon frequently to sing at various community and school events, this versatile group is always available. Because of the number of girls interested, a well-balanced group is ever ready to sing.

Drum Major Lois Strong and Majorettes Joann Dryer, Karen Shera, Judy Ferguson, Wynona Carver, Vincena Hughett, and Mary Wonders give a salute around the "best football band" trophy awarded by the Kiwanis Club.

Sandra Gladson and Kay Kleifgen serve punch to Connie Kelly and Dave Koepper, Wynona Carver and Danny Brown at the "Snow Whirl." Glittering stars, designed and made by the Art Department, sparkled against a false ceiling of blue crepe paper.

Music Department Dances

Manual's Music Department sponsored two big dances this year, the Choir's annual formal "Snow Whirl" and the Glee Club's "Leap Year Fling." Music for the "Snow Whirl" was by the Blue Notes, and Boyd Bennett played for the "Fling." This leap year dance gave Manual girls a chance to repay their boyfriends—or date new ones. With the girls footing all bills, how could the boys refuse.

Dancing to soft music in a whirl of snowflakes made a beautiful setting for the "Snow Whirl." Clusters of spruce trees, here and there, added to the atmosphere and provided a wintery aroma.

Glee Club—FIRST ROW: Kathi Ragle, Brenda Shoopman, Lynda Stone, Julie Kistler, Carolyn Wayman, Judy Johnson, Phyllis Taylor, Sandra Soult, Sharon Roberts, Sylvia Staples, Barbara Petree, Nina Graves, Gloria Graves, Betty Doles, Janie Clark. Future Teachers

Students interested in teaching as a career find Future Teachers of America gives them a view of the ups and downs of teaching. Members of this club are often cadet teachers at Manual or nearby elementary schools.

—Homemakers

To be a future homemaker is every girl's ambition. Supplementing the wide range of Home Economics courses at Manual is Future Homemakers of America. This group takes field trips to study various phases of homemaking.

Manual's Red Cross drive is supervised by our Junior Red Cross chapter. In February the girls gave a Valentine party for a group at the Marion County Children's Guardian Home for which they made fancy paper hats and party favors.

Lettermen's Club

Block M's at Manual are "hard to come by" since they are awarded on cumulative points. A block M may only be worn by the person who earns it. Friday is Lettermen's day, when each man proudly wears his letter sweater.

ROTC

More than 200 cadets make up Manual's ROTC, and all are in uniform on Thursday and Friday. They serve the school by acting as doormen, guides, ushers, and color guard for occasions like open house, school meetings, and productions in the Auditorium. Federal Inspection May 17 was the climax of a busy year.

—History Club

The purpose of the ROTC History Club is to acquaint cadets with the military history of the United States. Monthly lectures are attended by members and guests, and cadets must read a prescribed number of books from a supplementary list. This year the topic has been wars in which our country has fought.

First Lt. George L. Michael, Assistant PMS&T of the Indianapolis High School ROTC, lectures to members of the ROTC History Club. The group meets one Thursday afternoon each month in ROTC headquarters.

Spanish Club

Students interested in learning more about our Spanish-speaking neighbors join the Spanish Club. Since all communicating was done in this language, it afforded an excellent way of improving conversational Spanish.

ROTC Sponsors

Honorary cadet officers are elected by the Corps from among the senior girls. In bright uniforms they took turns conducting Friday inspection of all cadets. Honorary Captain Janet Jones was chosen Queen of the Military Ball, March 16.

Sgt. Francis Conder inspects the Honorary Cadet Officers, Ricki Rowles, Nadine Brehob, Sherry Dyer, Janet Jones, Nancy Foster, and Beverly Rich, in preparation for the Annual Military Ball.

Jim and Donna Barker, brother-sister dance team from "Palette Plotters"; Helen Webb, team mascot from "Kollege Kapers"; and Anne Kask and Jane Clark, cleaning women from "Stage Door," did outstanding specialty numbers from these acts.

Redskin Revue

Manualites get a chance to utilize their talents in various ways through the production of the annual Redskin Revue, an all-school variety show. Dancing, singing, and "clowning" all get into each of four acts, which are written and directed by students with the help of teacher sponsors. The 1956 show consisted of "Stage Door," by Anne and Urve Kask; "Your Hit Parade," by Donna Von Pein and Carolyn Solomon; "Palette Plotters," by Linda Bloemker and Teddy Winckelbach, and "Kollege Kapers," by Jeanne Steele and Phyllis Taylor.

"Kollege Kapers," the winning act of the Redskin Revue, was staged at "Midwestern College on the afternoon of the big game." The "Kapers" included all the color, excitement, and personalities found on a typical college campus, from the be-spectacled bookworm to the muscle-bound football hero.

Alice Blue Gown Chorus from "Hit Parade": Kent Klinge, Bob Kleppe, Ronald Whiteside, Pat Claney, Bill LaRue, Marvin Newland, George Smallwood, Jack Patterson, John Tucker.

After weeks of rehearsals and fun, the show was presented two evenings, March 9 and 10, in the Auditorium. Lending their time and efforts "behind the scenes" were many stage hands, art students, and costumers. All told, several hundred students were involved in producing this show, and numerous faculty members added their efforts to make it a success. The Redskin Revue is one of the biggest events of Manual's school year.

Redskin Revue student sponsors were Carolyn Solomon, Donna Von Pein, Anne Kask, Urve Kask, Linda Bloemker, Teddy Winekelbaeh, Phyllis Taylor, and Jeanne Steele. Mr. E. Edward Green was General Director.

Our Manual Heritage:
THE ATHLETICS

Traditionally all athletic contests, whether on the field or in the gym, open with the presentation of Colors and the Star Spangled Banner. Manual has had her ups and downs in competitive sports, but Manualites from the beginning have loyally backed the Redskins with gusto. This year has been a most satisfying one; even our school spirit has won acclaim.

Manual Offers Sports for All

Manual's athletic department offers a well-rounded program of athletics for sports-minded boys and girls. The favorites, football, basketball, and track, are supplemented by wrestling, cross country, baseball, and golf. Intra-mural sports for girls as well as for boys give everyone a chance to participate in competitive athletics.

Directors Coordinate Activities

Mr. Oral Bridgford, head of the Physical Education Department, works closely with Mr. Harry Thomas, athletic director. In the picture above, they check together on a list of supplies to be ordered. Manual's gym is a busy place all day with a partition dividing sections for girls' and boys' classes.

Varsity cheerleaders during the 1955-56 season were Jeanne Steele, Jim Barker, Phyllis Taylor, Gail Wayman, Barbara Acton, and Janie Clark.

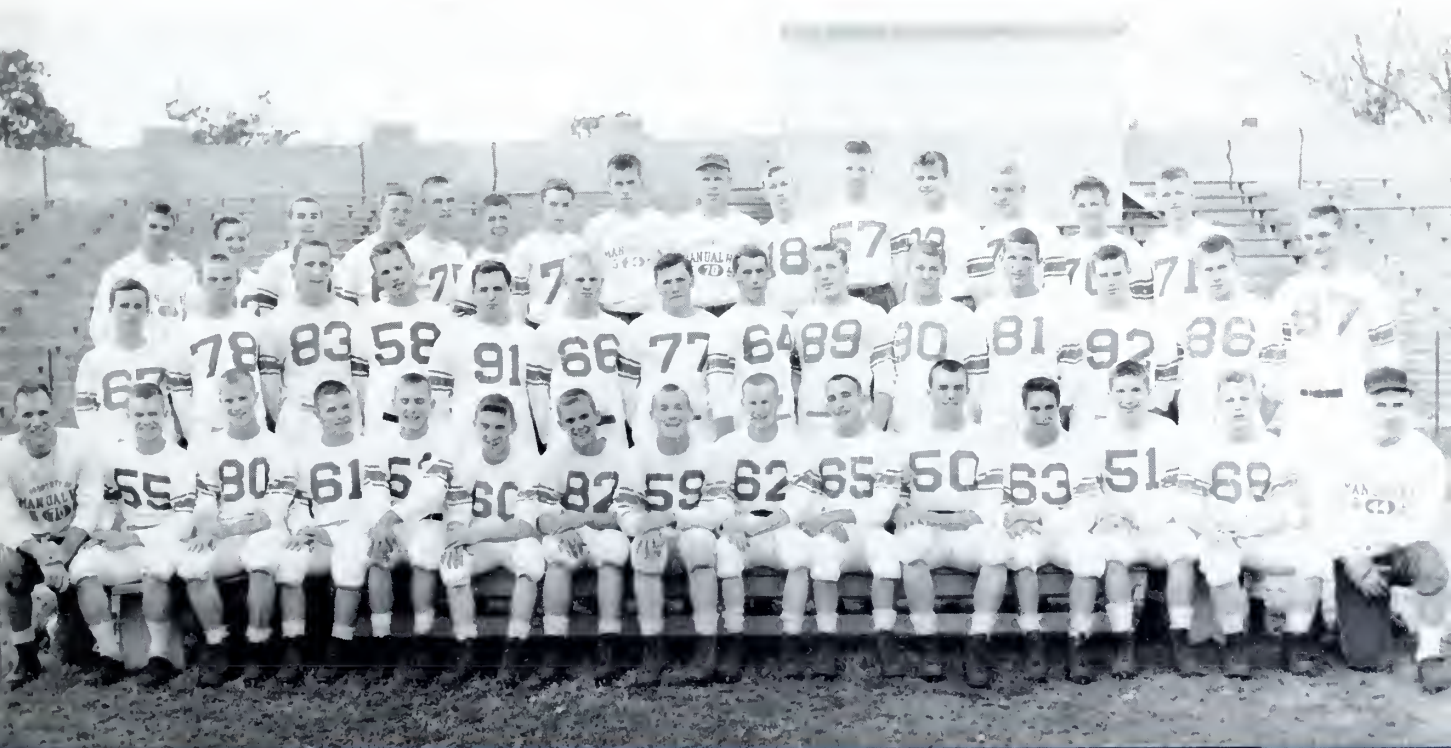

Redskin Football Improves

The Redskin gridders finished the '55-'56 season with a much improved 2-3-4 record. Mr. Noah Ellis was named head varsity football coach as Manual's athletic department underwent a big change. The 'Skins opened the season in fine style as the Teeh-Manual quarter of the City Football Jamboree ended in a 0-0 tie. The Tribe fought Sacred Heart's Spartans to a 7-7 tie, and held the Continentals of Washington to a scoreless game. Howe's Hornets figuratively exploded and stung the Tribesmen, 34-0.

The Warren Central Warriors were Manual's opponents in the Homecoming contest. Warren dampened the Manualites' festive spirits as they eked out a 14-13 victory. The gridders traveled to Southport where they suffered another close defeat. As the final gun sounded, the scoreboard read Southport 13, Manual 6.

Grid Followers Cheer Up

Mr. Noah Ellis congratulates Ron Price, named most valuable football player.

Redskin followers really had something to cheer about as the grididders won their first game by romping over Ben Davis, 20-6. Broad Ripple's Rockets were surprised as the Redskins fought them to a 6-6 tie. The Blue Devils of Shortridge white-washed the 'Skins, 18-0, on our field. The Manual gridiron men finished the season by shellacking the Crispus Attucks Tigers by a score of 25-0.

Tom Vittorio, Manual footballer, pulls a sparkling defensive play as he breaks up an opponent's pass play.

Freshman and Reserve Gridders

Showing promise in their first grid season were the Redskin Frosh. The Rhinies, breaking even in their six out-ings, took shut-out victories from War-ren Central 9-0, Perry Township 32-0, and Broad Ripple 27-0.

Manual's Reserve footballers had a disappointing season as they lost all five of their games. The 'Skins fell victim to Sacred Heart, Washington, Warren Central, Southport, and Broad Ripple.

Cross Country

Manual's thinly-clads, coached by Mr. Raymond Ashley, topped the Warren Central Warriors 25-30 and the Hornets of Howe 21-34 cross country dual meets.

In triangular contests the 'Skins beat out a victory from Franklin and Con-nersville and finished a close second behind Broad Ripple in another contest.

The two-milers finished third in a field of ten in the Howe Invitational Cross Country Meet. A sixth place went to the harriers in the city meet.

Bob Lindemann, well ahead of the pack, sprints across the finish line winning a cross country contest.

Harrier Andy Brown turns on the steam to pass a Washington runner in the Sectional Cross Country Meet.

Carl Short, Manual cager, goes high into the air to snag a rebound against Shortridge as Pat Clancy (21) and Bob Kleppe (25) wait expectantly.

Netters Turn In 'Best Record'

Manual's netters under the guidance of first-season coach, Dick Cummins, turned in the best Redskin record in 15 years. The 'Skins with an experienced lineup finished the 1955-56 campaign with 13 wins against eight losses for a .619 average.

The Redskins initiated the season with six straight wins topping Lawrence Central 68-55, Cathedral 48-47, Warren Central 64-56, Sacred Heart 45-37, Ben Davis 53-42, and Deaf School 79-53, respectively.

But the 'Skins found their match bowing to Broad Ripple 63-42, and Howe 71-59 in regular season play, and 57-52 in the City Tourney.

Following the three game losing streak the Redskins jumped back to defeat Columbus 64-60, and Teah 52-50.

The 'Skins took a loss to Washington, 57-53, but thundered back, beating Greensburg in an overtime 72-70, Beech Grove 56-45, and New Albany 72-50.

During the thrilling Tech encounter, which Manual won in the last few seconds 52-50, the Redskins were on their toes all the way. Ken Wright (14), Bob Kleppe (25), Bob Lindemann (33), and Carl Short (35) are shown rebounding and scoring through a nip and tuck battle that ended with Pat Clancy's desperation field goal.

In frog fashion, Carl Short (35) waits for Bill Pugh (12) and an unidentified Lawrence Bear to foul him in the season opener.

"Arch-rival" Shortridge dumped Manual 64-53, but the 'Skins did it again, sealing Greenwood 57-53.

The Redskins dropped the last two games of the regular season to Crispus Attueks 64-40 and Southport 54-45, respectively.

In Sectional play the Redmen revenged their regular season loss to Washington by snapping the Continental tourney hopes 49-48 in an overtime thriller, but the Redskins lost out in the second round 57-51 to Cathedral.

Carl Short, top Redskin scorer with 414 tallies, won the MVP award for the second consecutive year, while Pat Clancy was awarded the Free Throw Trophy.

Seniors playing in their last high school season were Carl Short, Bob Lindemann, Kenny Wright, Bob Kleppe, and Andy Brown.

Adding to the enthusiasm of the 1955-56 hardwood season was the Pep Club and Pep Band. One hundred strong, dressed in white blouses and red ties, the Pep Club girls followed the basketball team at home and on the road.

Pep Club Scores High

Redskin goalmen Bob Kleppe (25) and Andy Brown, partly hidden, battle for a rebound against Howe in the 57-52 setback in the City Tourney. Manual's Kenny Wright (right) gets ready for action.

Coach Dick Cummins led his reserve basketball team to a much improved season record. From a total of nineteen outings, the B-men captured thirteen while losing only six.

Freshmen

The Frosh basketballers, under the guidance of Coach Harold Bennett, broke even in their first year of competition. The Rhinie netmen turned in a 14-4 season record.

Tracksters— Ups and Downs

Manual's varsity track team, coached by Mr. Raymond Van Ars-dale, opened its season by winning over Crispus Attucks $65\frac{1}{3}$ - $51\frac{2}{3}$.
The tracksters continued along the victory trail by defeating Lawrence Central 78-38, and Ben Davis
79-34. The Redskins journeyed to Columbus and brought back a 68-49 victory.

Another road trip paid off as the thinly-clads outran two other teams participating in a triangular meet at Bloomington. The final score read Manual 103, Bloomington University 45, and Bedford 15. The 'Skins victory streak was cut short as Howe and Warren Central bested them in a triangular meet.

Tracksters in action are, TOP: Dick Shell and Ken Wright, MIDDLE: Jim Petree.
BOTTOM: Bob Lindemann.

Tom Davie turns on a spurt of speed trying to overtake a Tech runner.

Broad-jumper John Keating lands in the sand pit. Wonder if the tongue helps.

Howe won the meet with a total score of 72 $\frac{5}{6}$, Warren was second with 52 $\frac{1}{3}$, and Manual finished third with 29 $\frac{5}{6}$.

Manual's trackmen scored 6 $\frac{1}{5}$ points in the City Meet at Tech but got only one point in the Sectional held at Washington.

Baseball Team Wins Seven

The 'Skins diamondmen, coached by Walt Floyd, ended their season with a 7-8 record. Teams who were felled by the batsmen were Southport 5-4, Franklin 6-4, Warren Central 5-3, Crispus Attucks 6-5, Franklin Township 11-4, Greenfield 2-1, Lawrence Central 5-4.

The Manual baseballers were defeated by Shortridge (twice) 5-3, and 7-0, Ben Davis 12-0, Washington 5-3, Broad Ripple 5-1, Cathedral 9-7, Plainfield 5-4, and Howe 9-3.

Dave Fritsche, Redskin first baseman, exchanging a few practice throws to "warm up."

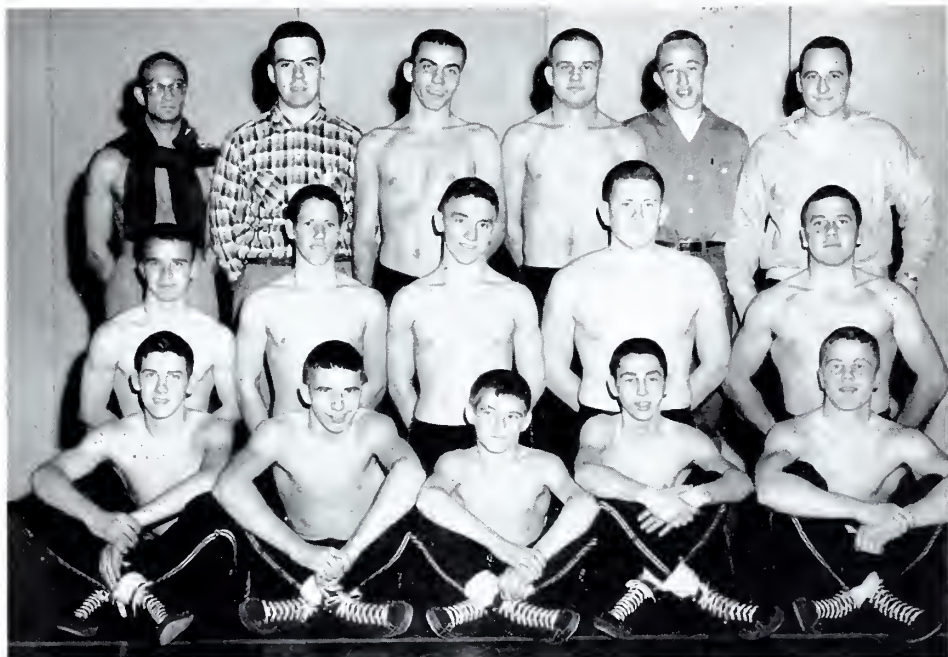

Bill Harmon grapples with an opponent from Broad Ripple.

Wrestling

The Manual grapplers, under Mentor Jack Foster, ended the 1955-'56 grunt-and-groan season with a 9-7 record.

Jim Hoalt, along with his fine individual meet record, copped the 95-pound County Championship, the 95-pound Sectional Championship, and was runner-up in the State 95-pound class.

Tee-Men Chalk Up 10-5

The Redskin tee-men turned in a winning 10-5 golf campaign in 1955, taking link events from Pendleton, Greenfield, Seecina, Ben Davis, Cathedral (twice), Wood (twice), and Lawrence Central (twice).

Redskin scalpers were Washington, Southport, Warren Central, and Attucks (twice).

Strong arms support Calvin Crooks as he swings his body around the horizontal bar. Mr. Oral Bridgford, instructor, stands by.

John Higgins swings himself over the parallel bars in a gym class routine.

In a running somersault Maurice Metzger goes head down—and then over—perfecting this exercise for the Decathlon Contest. Many tumbling exercises are practiced by boys in gym classes.

Competition Sparks Gym Classes

"Daring young man on the flying trapeze" is Kenneth Graves. After a swing in good form, he leaves the rings in good acrobat style.

All Manual boys taking gym are eligible to compete in the Physical Education Department's Decathlon Contest, but only freshmen boys can officially win. This contest consists of exercises on the parallel and horizontal bars, the ladders, and other regular gym equipment. Boys earn points as they complete the required exercises. Dave Summers won last year's Decathlon Contest with 935 points out of a possible 1,000 markers. Dave received the Paul Frenzel Medal.

Supplementing the regular gym program are intra-mural basketball and softball. These sports are open to all boys in school. The basketball teams, which played on Tuesday and Thursday nights throughout the season, saw the Hawks take the championship title.

Champion team of the Girls' Bowling League included Janet Jones, captain, Trudie Sheridan, Judy DeMott, and Marjorie Viehe, and Marcia Miller holding the ball. Captain Janet was also leading scorer.

Girls Enjoy Gym

Although gym is required for only one year, many Manual girls take four years of it. It's fun! And a diversified intramural program keeps dozens of sports-minded gals busy after school. The girls went to Garfield Park for tennis and archery on Monday afternoons last fall as long as weather permitted.

Mary Whitney instructs Barbara Bullock in a proper hold on her golf club. "Always line up your thumbs," says Instructor Mary.

Linda Collins demonstrates some good balancing as she performs on the low balance beam for members of her gym class.

Up and over the bar goes Barbara Scott. Miss Elena Raglin, girls' gym instructor, and Martha Rippy act as her steadies.

and Intra-mural Sports

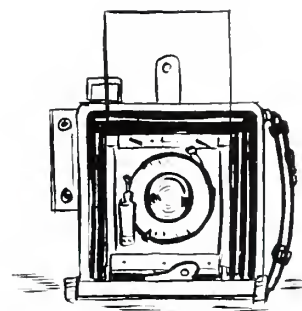

Thursday afternoons found them at Sarah Shank Golf Course for instructions and a round of nine holes. Bowling, starting in October and lasting through April, kept a number of girl keglers in trim through the winter months. Spring sports agenda included badminton, softball, ping pong, golf, and tennis.

Gym classes often participate in a fast game of volleyball where competition is keen. This makes it good sport.

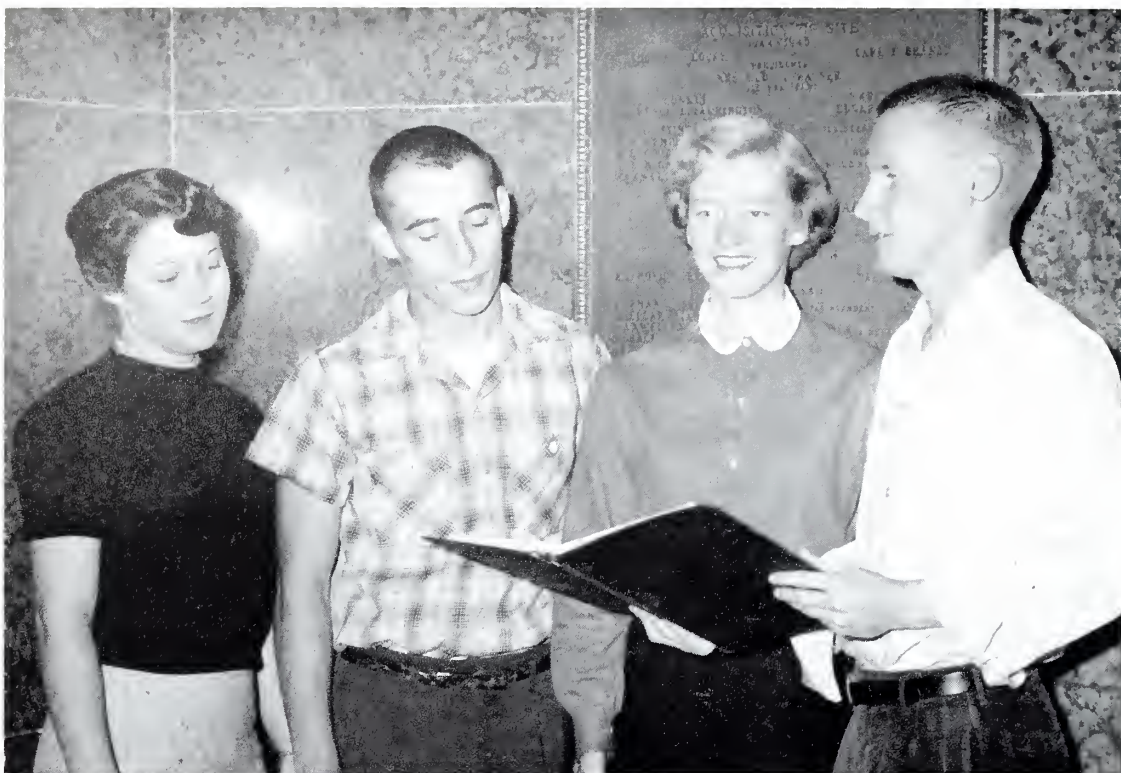

Our Manual Heritage:
THE ALBUM

Although we go our separate ways throughout the school day, there are some things we all do in common like attending auds and pep sessions and going to lunch and study halls. There being more than 1600 of us, it is hard to get us all together in one place; but here we are in the next 53 pages—the whole Manual family, students, faculty, and staff.

Senior officers are Sonya Poppaw, secretary; Jack Patterson, president; Sue Calvert, vice-president, and George Smallwood, treasurer.

Here's the Class of '56

Senior Day, November 15, formally opened class activities. Dressed in "party clothes," we sported our turquoise and black ribbons and arm bands for the first time. A much-needed trophy case, gift from the class, displays Manual honors in the Auditorium foyer. Senior Week, including Class Day, Vespers, Commencement, and, topping it all, the Senior Prom, makes a fitting climax to four years at Manual.

Phyllis Alexander and Bernice Garrett prepare a "truek" of desserts for sweet-toothed Manualites. Homemade cakes and a variety of pies, puddings, and fruits are favorites with all of us.

"Senior member" of the staff of cooks is Juanita Reed. If all the sandwiehes she has made for Manualites were laid end to end—well, who knows?

Mrs. Sarah McKinney and Mrs. Pearl Phillips, matrons, pause in their round of ehores to exehange comments about their big Manual "family."

THE ADVERTISING

Part of what we're learning in these growing-up years is the value of the dollar. Many of us earn our own spending money, so we try to spend it wisely. The businessmen who have advertised in our yearbook know this and recognize in us potential customers. The pictures for these advertisements have been posed by Manual students.
